2025

Noa Argamani has been named one of TIME magazine's 100 Most Influential People in the World.

Following the announcement, she said,

"My life changed forever on October 7th.
I spent 246 days as a hostage,
stripped of freedom and control.

Since my rescue, I've made a promise to do everything in my power to bring the others home - including my love, my partner, Avinatan Or, who is still being held in the tunnels of Gaza."
